PARTING BANQUETS.

SAN FRANCISCO'S FAREWELL ENTERTAINMENT TO GEN. GRANT.

An Evening with the "Forty-Niners" and an Afternoon at the Golden Gate Park.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 27.—General Grant on Friday night attended a banquet given in his honor by the Society of California Pioneers. A number of distinguished guests were present, including Senator Sharon, ex-Senator Cole and others. In response to a toast by W. T. Coleman, president of the society, General Grant spoke as follows:

CALIFORNIA PIONEERS:—When your worthy president began and mentioned "Ohioan," I did not know whether he was addressing his remarks to me or the Senator from Nevada, who has commanded almost everything on the coast—who lives in California, votes in Nevada, and carries the State in his pocket. I have already to-day thanked some of you at your hall, and others at another society to which many of you belong—the Mexican War Veterans—and I again thank you for the distinguished honor which you have conferred upon me.

The company broke up at a late hour.

Yesterday the General attended an exhibition trot gotten up for his benefit at the Oakland track. He arrived on the ground at 1 P. M., escorted by Mayor Pardee, of Oakland, president of the Golden Gate Park Association, under the auspices of which the exhibition was given. Mayor Bryant, of San Francisco, Senator Sharon and Charles Crocker, were present. A large crowd had gathered who greeted the ex-President with hearty cheers. After a brief hand-shaking and an excellent lunch, the General was escorted to the judges' stand and the exercises began. The day was fine and the track in excellent condition. The first event was a trot between a field of eight third-class trotters, who were so evenly matched that the race was rather interesting, though the best time made (2.28) was slow. St. Julien was brought out to beat the best time made by Rarus. St. Julien was followed at a short distance by a running horse. At a word St. Julien went under the wire on a square trot, and for the entire mile never make a skip nor a break, coming in in the unprecedented time of 2.12½, and apparently but little worse for his magnificent effort. He was driven by Arrin Hickox. The result was received with prolonged cheering, General Grant dropping his hat and making as much noise as any one. The General returned to this city at 5 o'clock.

A FAREWELL BANQUET.

General Grant was tendered a farewell banquet by the citizens of San Francisco at the Palace Hotel last night. Every means had been taken to render the affair the most perfect of the kind ever given in the city. The company consisted of about two hundred and fifty of the most prominent gentlemen of the city. The decorations of the banqueting hall were of the most elaborate description. The tables presented an elegant appearance, and the menu was engraved on solid silver intended to serve the guests as souvenirs of that occasion, while that prepared for General Grant was of massive gold. Mayor Bryant presided and toasted the guest of the evening in an appropriate speech, to which the General responded as follows:

Gentlemen of San Francisco: The unbounded hospitality and cordiality with which I have been received since first I put my foot on the soil of California has taken deep root in my heart. It was more than I could have expected, and while it entailed some little fatigue at times, I assure you I have been grateful for it. I have previously been in California and on the Pacific coast, but have been away a quarter of a century, and when I landed here the last time I found that none of the pioneers had grown old; but if I should remain away another quarter of a century I might be compelled to confess that some of you had grown old [applause], and I want to see you again in your prime and youth. Gentlemen, in taking my departure I want to thank you all for the farewell reception given me this evening, and to express the hope that whether or not I am to have the happiness ever to visit your city again, I shall, at least, meet one and all of you elsewhere, and if it should not be in this life, that it may be in a better country.

The evening passed pleasantly, many of the gentlemen present responding happily to the sentiments given, but at a comparatively early hour the company broke up with many expressions of mutual pleasure and good will. At midnight General Grant and party proceeded to the special train in waiting, and left for Virginia City.

Garibaldi on Austria.

ROME, Oct. 27.—Garibaldi has written to the President of the Italia Irridenta Committee as follows: "Some persons talk of peace and friendship with Austria. Peace, yes, since we have not courage to drive her out of Italy; but friendship with Austria would be a sacrilege and a lie.

The Mormons Defiant.

NEW YORK, Oct. 27.—A Salt Lake special says the Mormon leaders are still defiant. At the late conference, five apostles avowed their determination to defy the Government and live up to their principles. The acquittal of the murderers of Elder Standing moves the church organ to the intensest wrath. In an editorial, published last evening, it says it is evident that the jury can not be impaneled in Georgia, which will punish asssasins for killing a Mormon.

Memphis Resuming.

MEMPHIS, Oct. 27.—There was a general resumption of business this morning in all branches of trade. Stores that have been closed since last July were opened by their proprietors, who have returned to the city, and the wheels of commerce are once again moving rapidly along. Through trains on all railroads, excepting the Little Rock route, arrive and depart, and the streets present their wonted animated appearance. The Cotton Exchange is open to visitors and members, and regular quotations, receipts, shipments and stock will be posted as heretofore. But one case of fever has been reported, Mrs. Rosa Volman, who was stricken three days ago.

A Slanderer Punished.

LONDON, Oct. 27.—Adolphus Rosenberg, of the Town Talk, was convicted on Saturday last, and was to-day sentenced to eighteen months' imprisonment on an indictment charging him with publishing defamatory libels against Mrs. Langtry, and to six months' imprisonment on each of the indictments charging him with similar offenses against Mrs. Cornwallis West and Lord Londesborough respectvely; and at the expiration of the term of his imprisonment, he is to be bound over, in his own recognizance, in the sum of £1,000 for good behavior for eighteen months. Justice Hawkins said he regretted that he could not impose a sentence of hard labor upon the prisoner.

Miscellaneous Foreign News.

Boyd has accepted Elliott's articles of agreement, and the race will be rowed February 9th.

Another Balloonatic.

NEW YORK, Oct. 27.—A special dispatch from St. Charles, Missouri, says: Will. Brayton, the aeronaut, made an ascension yesterday. The wind was blowing very hard. He was dressed in tights, and the balloon had no basket, having only rigging to hold to. Brayton hung his head downward, holding by his legs. When about five hundred feet in the air it is supposed that the balloon became unmanageable, as it crossed the Mississippi going due north, and was soon out of sight. Brayton, with no clothing but tights, could not, it is thought, endure the cold long. Dr. Downey, of Louisiana, and a nephew of Professor Wise, assisted Brayton.

The Meeker Family Safe.

RAWLINS, Oct. 26.—A courier just in from Merritt's Camp, on White River, reports that General Adams reached there on the 24th, with the women and children of the Meeker and Price families, who were given up to him by the Indians. They were well, and had not been subject to insult or injury. The Indians are said to desire peace, and terms of peace have been forwarded to Washington.

A fight is reported at the old battle ground, on Milk Creek, between the Utes and ranchmen. No particulars.

Tilden for unpaid income tax. United States Attorney Woodford and S. B. Clarke appeared for the Government; ex-Judge Porter and Aaron J. Vanderpoel for the defendant. Judge Blatchford gave his decision overruling the demurrer, and directed the plaintiff to serve his proposed form of order.

A Michigan Murder.

DETROIT, Mich., Oct. 27.—This morning William Copeland and George Rhinehart, while digging a town ditch across the land of William Wilham in the town of Burton, four miles from Flint, were ordered by Wilham, who protested against the ditch, to stop work. The men not complying, Wilham shot Rhinehart dead. Copeland ran away. Rhinehart leaves a wife and several children in destitute circumstances. Wilham has not been arrested.

Reduction of Cable Rates.

LONDON, Oct. 27.—The Times financial article says the tactics of the Anglo American Cable Company to nip in the bud the French cable enterprise by announcing the reduction in tariff on messages to six pence per word from the opening of the new French cable, appears to have been so far successful as the shares of the French company issued at 5 per cent. premium have fallen to 25 per cent. discount.

Death of An Old Bank President.

COLUMBIA, S. C. Oct. 27.—Colonel L. D. Childs, formerly president of the Carolina National Bank, died this afternoon.

Hard to Beat.

Wilson Advance.

Dick Ruffin, who lives on the land of R. M. Cox, Esq., near Black Creek, in this county, has three children which are chips of the old block. One day last week they picked out cotton with the following result: Moses, eight years old, picked 162 pounds, Annie, seven years old, 148 pounds, and Delphia, six years old, 111 pounds. According to age and inches we think this will beat the State. Dick is an honest, hard working colored man, has five in family, and his store account this year has been only ten dollars. He expects to make with his own force ten or twelve bales of cotton and sixty barrels of corn.

The Course to Pursue.

Washington Post.

The Republican candidate for Governor of Louisiana is an ex-Confederate soldier. Mizzer Chandler should journey to that State and take the stump for this "red-handed rebel." It would seem to polish off Zachariah's war record, after having worked against the Union soldier ticket in Ohio, to boost the ex-Confederate in Louisiana.

Driving Out the Whites.

Atlanta Dispatch.

Yesterday Mr. Herbert Capper, a gentleman from Kansas, reached this city with his wife and seven children en route for Norcross where he proposes to locate on an improved farm. Mr. Capper comes highly recommended, and will be cordially welcomed here.

LAST NIGHT'S MAILS.

THE NEWS FROM THE INDIAN COUNTRY.

General Merritt's Command Overtaken by Blinding Snow Storm ---Commissioner Raum.

Baltimore Sun, 27th.

The intelligence received by Secretary Schurz last night of the surrender of the captive women and children held by the hostile Utes was very welcome, and the Secretary is very much encouraged to hope that the murderers will next be given up. Of this, however, as already said, there may be doubt entertained. The murderers are most likely concealed in the mountain fastnesses far away from the point where the captives were recovered. It seems now that it was wise in any event to stop Merritt's command from proceeding further at the time the orders to that effect were received. Winter had already come in that inhospitable region. A blinding and freezing snow storm had overtaken General Merritt. At the very moment that the courier reached him with orders to stop the pursuit he was sending back his wagon train because he could not proceed with it. Inefficiently equipped and provisioned as he was, great suffering would have been entailed on the troops had he moved on.

GOING FOR COMMISSIONER RAUM.

Several Virginia Republicans called on the President yesterday and asked for the removal of Commissioner of Internal Revenue Raum. Their reason for making the request was because of the recent letter of the Commissioner to an internal revenue inspector in Petersburg, demanding his resignation on account of his alleged support of the debt repudiators. The President was told that to keep Mr. Raum in office would be considered as an evidence that his administration intended to exercise a coercive influence over State politics. The President did not indicate that Mr. Raum would be removed.

LATE STATE NOTES.

Statesville Landmark.

Mr. Isaac A. Witherspoon, of this place, has a gourd which holds one bushel, and he buys corn by the gourd full.

Congressman Armfield says the result of the Ohio election is bad, but when New York is heard from all will be right.

When the Federal Court convened there was only one prisoner in jail, but in a few days it will again be filled to overflowing.

Mr. J. C. L. Smith, accused of murdering one Waddell some time since in Ashe county, has been released on a bond of $1,500.

Miss Painter, the revivalist, has gone to Mocksville, where she will hold a series of meetings. There is some talk of inviting her to this place.

A gentleman from Ashe county reports that the drought was so severe that the people were compelled to drink boiled corn juice to quench their thirst.

Wilmington Review, 25th.

Owen Fennell, Esq., of Sampson county, the venerable ex sheriff of this county, was in the city yesterday. Ex-sheriff Fennell is very nearly seventy-six years of age, and bears his years well. One would hardly take him to be more than sixty.

The new engine and boiler of the Wilmington Compress Company, which has been erected in place of the one burned down less than a month ago, is now in working order. Yesterday they had steam raised for the first time, and to-day or Monday the new apparatus will be at work squeezing bales of cotton into a very small shape.

STATE NEWS.

[Correspondence under this head is furnished by regular contributors to the News.]

DAVIE.

ELBAVILLE, Oct. 22.—Saturday the 8th instant the dry weather was broken up by a gentle shower, and to-day the heavy clouds are dropping a steady shower and the indications are good for a wet fall and winter. It is thought that considerable damage has been done to early sowed wheat by the dry weather and the fly. The full extent of damage done by the fly cannot be determined until next spring. Last Saturday evening the Yadkin river began rising rapidly, though the small streams in this section were all low, and continued to rise until noon on Sunday, reaching a height of fifteen feet, damaging the corn on the lowest bottoms. We suppose that great damage has been done on the head-waters of the Yadkin, as the torrent of drift and pumpkins showed that she had played havoc in the low lands along her borders. The ferry boat at Fulton escaped.

Professor Rominger, of the Fork Church Academy, and Mr. Luther Stewart, of the same vicinity, both left last Saturday to be married on Sunday, the former to a Miss Spurgeon, the latter to Miss Rominger, sister of the Professor. They returned yesterday much happier than the farmers whose corn had been under the water. We welcome the young ladies to the full enjoyment of citizenship, and bespeak for them a large share of that generous hospitality that the people of Davie know so well how to bestow.

The Hartman Brothers are now opening a new store at Advance, Davie county. They are industrious, worthy young men, and we bespeak for them a liberal share of the trade. This is their first venture in mercantile life.

E.

P. S.—My last report made me say Brown was opening a store at Smith's Grove. It should have been Brower.

WAKE.

WAKE FOREST COLLEGE, Oct. 25.—The senior class of the present session made their first appearance on the rostrum on last evening, the exercises commencing about 7 o'clock. Mr. W. T. Jones, of Wilmington, who was the first speaker, gave the audience the benefit of some good thoughts on "Man and not Man." Mr. C. S. Farriss, of Raleigh, delivered in good style a very fine oration on "Unwritten Music." Mr. B. H. Phillips, of Johnston county, boldly took the ground that "Public Sentiment must be Elevated," and sustained his assertions by good argument. Mr. W. B. Waff, of Reynoldson, painted a beautiful picture of "The True Patriot." Mr. J. T. Alderman, of Sampson county, described the pleasantness, real worth and beauties of "Carolina's Rural Home" so modestly, yet so forcibly, as to give new charms to country life. Mr. J. N. Holding, of Wake Forest, in a masterly and impressive way discoursed on the "Benefits of Imagination." Mr. W. H. Ragsdale, of Granville county, rendered his oration on the subject, "Indulgence of Hope necessary to Greatness and Excellence," in a manner which won for him brilliant encomiums from those well able to judge. Mr. J. M. Davis, of Hendersonville, plainly showed that there is a great necessity for "Physical Development." Mr. W. G. Ferebee, of Camden county, rehearsed soft strains from the "Voices of Time." Mr. M. S. Jones, of Apex, was the last speaker. As his subject, "Thought the Fulcrum, Press the Lever," was announced, he came before the audience in his usually pleasant style. He acquitted himself handsomely, while germs of rare beauty could be detected by those who had a taste for literary excellence.

The ladies of the village, for lapses of thought, bestowed floral gems. The Wake Forest String Band furnished excellent music. The occasion passed off very pleasantly, all thinking that the class had made a fine impression. The usual invitation was given to the social gathering in the Literary halls.

GUILFORD.

GREENSBORO, Oct. 27.—The weather is cool and embracing, overcoats and thick clothing in demand. Big frosts. Trade is lively; better than for years, and there is apparently more ready cash down than usual, for goods.

Births—L. W. Andrews, the photographer, is the happy man this time.

No marriages since the last big one.

Two of our citizens not satisfied exactly as to the amount of vice in man, had a little affray about a vise (iron) and for which they paid $1.00 and $2.00 each. Under this head let me tell you how a big fire was prevented. Police Weatherly, at 4 A. M. Sunday morning, saw too much light in Farrer's jewelry store for that time of night, and hastening to the spot found the shelving ablaze. This and the telegraph office are one under the Benbow hotel. He broke through the glass window, and with little assistance, prevented a terrible conflagration. The fire bells soon raised a big crowd.

Dr. Smith being absent at the Synod, his pulpit was filled by Mr. Rawlings, of Virginia, his brother-in-law, and at night by Rev. C. Miller, of Madison. This man Miller looks much like a boy, but preaches with the experience and power of age.

Rev. D. R. Bruton returned to his pulpit yesterday from an extended official trip up North in the interest of the Greensboro Female College, with what success I have not heard.

The meetings of the Young Men's Christian Association are now largely attended with much interest and feeling, and their labors are not in vain.

Among the convicts of the C. F. & Y. V. R. R., some have greatly improved in singing and seem to take quite an interest in the religious exercises, and who by the way have been quite healthy while here, not a death by disease among them, and nearly all well all the time. This week they finish the first section of the road-bed to the creek and remove to stockade No. 2, some five miles from town. An important meeting of the friends of this railroad was largely attended Saturday night in the court house in advocacy of a subscription of $20,000 by Gilmer and Morehead townships, by a vote of the people on the 15th of November, to run said road by the original line of survey by Bruce's Cross Roads, Lashes', etc. Enthusiastic speeches were made by Colonel Morehead, Hon. A. M. Scales, D. F. Caldwell and president J. A. Gray. Judge Dillard presiding. Adjourned till Saturday next.

Next Sunday is the yearly gathering of the Friends at New Garden, which is always attended by great numbers of persons from the far west and other States. These people are a peculiar people, concanious and are mainly honest in their views and dealings.

THE DEATH OF COLONEL GRAY.

Carried Helpless to a Hospital and Expiring in a Few Hours.

New York Star, 25th.

A man somewhat past middle age and quite feeble was driven to the New York Hospital on Wednesday afternoon, and at his own request was admitted thereto. It was found that he was suffering from consumption. He failed rapidly and died yesterday. The physicians could get but little information from him. He said that his name was Colonel Lafayette W. F. Gray, and that for some years he had been a traveling advertising agent for hotels and railroads. In his pockets he carried a large number of railroad and steamboat passes, principally over lines in the South.

"But have you no friends with whom I can communicate?" asked the attending physician.

"Friends!" exclaimed the Colonel; "why, I have thousands of them. I'm known all the way from Savannah to Portland."

Finally he said that his relatives lived in Lynchburg, Va., but that he never communicated with them. Being pressed, however, he dictated a letter to Mary Jane Gray, who, he said, was his sister, living in Lynchburg. After the Colonel's death a telegram was sent to Miss Gray, but it was returned with the announcement that the directions were too indefinite.

The Colonel would not give the names of his acquaintances in this city nor the place at which he was stopping before he was taken to the hospital, excepting that it was a hotel near the Grand Central Depot. The case was reported to the Central Office, and Superintendent Walling will endeavor to find the dead man's friends.

Colonel Gray is described as having been an educated and well-bred man. Among his effects were found a large number of business letters and medical prescriptions. Fragments of a letter written on official paper of the Treasury Department, addressed to Colonel W. F. Gray, Providence Hospital, Washington, D. C., were also found. The letter was signed "Green B. Raum, Commissioner," but the body of the letter had been destroyed. There were passes on the Old Dominion Steamship Company's boats, over the New York Central road, and several English and Irish railroads; a letter signed by J. Thomas Vose, Boston, written in July last, recommending Colonel Gray for admission to the Boston City Hospital. Before his death Colonel Gray said that he had $11 when he reached the city, but less than $2 was found. The body will be kept at the hospital for a few days to await a claimant.

The New York News of the 25th says that the remains of Colonel Gray are rescued from a Potter's Field interment. Mr. Uriah Welch, of the St. Nicholas Hotel, and Mr. John F. Sproule, of 229 Broadway, have come forward and guaranteed a respectable funeral. These gentlemen only knew the Colonel slightly in a business way, but as the deceased was so rambling in his talk before his death as to be unable to give any accurate information of his relatives, Messrs. Welch and Sproule believe this friendly act incumbent on them.

No Cause for Alarm.

There was not so much as a State flag, a Masonic or Odd Fellows' banner or other insignia to confuse and alarm those Stalwart Radicals who, from lack of experience during the war, could not distinguish a dish-rag from the red cross of St. George.

DRIVEN MAD BY HUNGER.

JAMES SULLIVAN LEAPS FROM THE ELEVATED TRACK.

A New London Youth's Attempt to End His Life After Seeking in Vain for Work in this City.

New York Star, 28th.

The clerks in Henry Bischoff's fancy grocery store, No. 177 Bowery, were startled last evening about 7 o'clock by the advent of a demented looking young man who came bounding into the establishment with a crowd of Bowery urchins at his heels. So sudden were the stranger's movements that several customers were rudely jostled out of their places as the new-comer brushed up to Frederick Schreiner, one of the clerks, and shouted:

"Give me a pistol, for God's sake, and hurry up, for I want to shoot myself!"

This request was peremptorily refused by Mr. Schreiner, who perceived at once that his questioner was insane, or in a condition bordering on frenzy. His clothing betrayed evidence of extreme destitution, while hunger seemed to have turned his intelligent face into a picture of haggardness. Mr. Bischoff hurried to the assistance of his employe, but not in time to prevent the stranger from grasping a cheese knife and drawing it across his own throat. The wound proved to be a slight one. A stampede ensued in the place, for it was feared that further havoc would be created. A gentleman living at No. 48 Eldridge street succeeded in getting the knife away from the young man.

The latter then ran into the Bowery and up the steps of the Elevated railway station at the corner of Grand street. Without waiting for the formality of purchasing a ticket he darted past the gate-man, jumped on the track, and a moment later, to the horror of all, the spectators, flung himself into the street. A Third avenue car had just passed the spot where he struck the paving stones. The police with difficulty picked him up, owing to the crowd that congregated around the spot.

At the Tenth Precinct station a hurried diagnosis showed that the back, left side and left arm of the would-be suicide were broken. Although scarcely able to speak, he gave his name and address as James Sullivan, aged twenty-five, of No. 11 Summit street, New London, Conn. The terrible shock seemed to have brought Sullivan to his senses, for he began to groan piteously, and begged to be taken to a hospital.

Little hope of Sullivan's recovery was expressed when the surgeon of Chambers Street Hospital made him comfortable an hour later. The suicide's story was partially learned last night. Sullivan, it appears, was in receipt of a comfortable income until last year while living in New London. Hard times threw him out of employment. Ten days ago he found himself in this city, out of work, out of friends and without a single acquaintance to whom he could apply for aid. He wandered about the streets in an aimless manner until hunger drove him wild. In conversation Sullivan betrayed considerable intelligence and even culture. He could remember nothing, he said of his attempt on his life; everything seemed a blank until he recovered consciousness through his terrible leap. Amputation will be necessary for both upper and lower limb, should Sullivan survive long enough to make the operations possible. "Even then," said his attendant last night, "the poor fellow will be a cripple for life."

The New York News of the 25th has the following relative to the matter:

At the New York Hospital whence he was transferred last night from Chambers street, he was found to be suffering from delirium tremens. His injuries, far from being very severe as represented, are wonderfully slight under the circumstances. One bone in his right foot is broken; he has a small scalp wound, and a bruise on his back. He was respectably dressed and had eleven dollars in his pocket. He has as yet had no interval sufficiently lucid to make reliable statements concerning himself.

Won't Keep Silence.

Baltimore Gazette (Dem).

On the morning after the Ohio election, Deacon Smith covered the first page of the Cincinnati Gazette with a spread eagle, under which was inscribed the legend, "When the lion roars let the beasts of the forest tremble! When Ohio speaks, let the Democratic party keep silence!" It is wrong for Deacon Smith to attempt to terrorize the Democratic party by palming off an old worn-out eagle for a lion. For one member of the Democratic party we don't propose to keep silence. "Hurrah for Gen. Jackson!"

Stung by a Spider.

New Berne Nut Shell, 27th.

On Wednesday afternoon, while Mrs. Ella Gaskill was teaching her school in this city she experienced a sharp pain in her chest and on making an examination found that she had been stung in two places by a small green spider. In a short time time the pain became so intense that she had to discontinue her duties in the school room and seek medical aid. She obtained temporary relief, but had to retire to her bed, where she remained in great suffering until yesterday, when she had somewhat improved.

Exhuming a Skeleton.

Wilmington Star, 25th.

Our friends at Point Caswell had a small sensation a few days ago, caused by the exhuming of the remains of a human body in front of one of the stores in that quiet burgh. The skeleton, some parts of which are very perfect, appears to be that of a man buried a great many years ago, and considerable interest is manifested in the question as to whether the remains are those of one of our own race or of an Indian.

Attempted Robbery.

Wilmington Star, 25th.

The residence of Mr. A. Weill was entered a night or two since, two of the rooms occupied by members of the family ransacked, and clothing misplaced, but the thief, who was evidently in search of money, was accidentally detected before he had accomplished his purpose, and made a precipitate retreat through the door by which he had entered, and which was evidently left unlocked.

Captured at Last.

Goldsboro Messenger, 27th.

The negro Deems Simmons, who murdered Mr. Lanier near Dudley some months ago, has at last come to grief. After successfully evading the vigilance of our efficient sheriff, he was captured in the edge of Cumberland county, near the Bladen and Sampson line, on Saturday night last, and is now securely lodged in our county jail. The arrest was accomplished in good order by Messrs. E. J. Hines and Simon Grady, who have been on the murderer's track for several weeks, and succeeded in capturing him at the house of one of his relatives. Messrs. Hines and Grady will receive the reward of $200 offered by the Governor.

DANGEROUS COFFEE.

A Negress Poisons Herself and Two of Her own Race with Strychnine.

NASHVILLE, October 25.—Robert Baumont, Eliza Brooks and Emma Baumont, all colored, who reside on West Line street, Thirteenth District, were poisoned with coffee which contained strychnine early yesterday morning. Baumont works in Edgefield, and ate breakfast at 5 A. M., in time to reach the place of his day's labor at the hour appointed. Getting up from the breakfast table he walked to his front gate, where he was taken violently ill and threw up his breakfast. He returned to the house, drank some water, and again started on his way to work. He had not gone far, however, before he was seized with another violent vomiting spell, and was compelled to return home. Baumont's wife immediately went after her mother and Dr. Rainey. On reaching her home she gave her mother some coffee and she was in turn prostrated. It was now ascertained that the coffee contained poison. Emma Baumont, a girl aged 16 years, was accused of knowing something about the matter. She at first denied it, and drank some of the coffee, but when she found she was becoming sick she confessed that she had placed strychnine in the coffee, at the instance of a negress named Lizzie Brown, who was arrested and committed to jail to await a preliminary examination. Robert Baumont, Eliza Brooks and Emma Baumont were in a critical condition, but it was thought they would recover with good nursing.

COURTNEY ACCEPTS.

He Will Row Against Hanlan's Time for the Purse of $1,000.

Rochester Morning Herald, 25th.

It will be seen by the following dispatch, received by Mr. Soule yesterday, that Courtney proposes to accept the proposition made by that gentleman and row against Hanlan's time for the purse of $1,000. This will meet with the approbation of his friends, and will convince the public that he can beat the time made by the Canadian with ease when there are no obstacles in the way. The time and place will be announced next week:

UNION SPRINGS, Oct. 23.—I accept your proposition; will let you know next week when and where I will make the trial.

Arrest of an Escaped Convict

Wilmington Review, 25th.

A white man by the name of Jeremiah Johnson, who was convicted of larceny at the August term of the Criminal Court in this county, and sentenced by Judge Meares to four years in the State Penitentiary, was yesterday arrested in Federal Point township by one of Sheriff Manning's colored deputies resident there, and brought to this city and lodged in jail for safe keeping for the present.

The convict is in very delicate health and was working in Cherokee county with a party of other convicts in a tunnel at the time he made his escape, which he alleges he was advised to do. The party making the capture will get ten dollars upon the safe delivery of his prisoner to the Penitentiary officials at Raleigh.

BRIGHT EYES' STORY.

THE INDIAN MAIDEN VERSUS HOSE MEEKER.

The Poncas Removed from Dakota to the Indian Territory, with the Privilege of Walking Back.

Chicago Inter-Ocean.

The appearance that Standing Bear and his daughter, Bright Eyes, would be at the First Congregational church, in this city, Monday evening, called forth a large audience. Bright Eyes was introduced after some preliminary exercises, and I read a short history of the wrongs of her people. The young lady's narrative was very interesting, and was delivered in very good English, and with a pleasant voice. She said that she was a member of the tribe, and she knew the things of which she spoke. She told the story of the chiefs who had been invited to visit Washington and treat with the great father. Their friends waited long to hear of their arrival in Washington, but in vain. Months afterward they reached home weary, foot-sore and almost dead. They had been deceived, and instead of taking them to Washington the agents had taken them to the Indian Territory and left them the choice of remaining there and selecting a home for their tribe or of walking back to Dakota. They had chosen the latter, and when their people heard the story of their wrongs they were indignant at the insult. A letter was dispatched to the President but was never heard from. Then the tribe was forced at the point of the bayonet, to leave its home, its property and all, and was driven to a barren waste, where the people were fast dying off.

She said that she had seen the statement in the papers that the soldiers had been sent to the Poncas because there was danger of serious trouble between two parties of their tribe. She could not conceive how there could be trouble, when one part of the tribe was in Dakota and the other in the Indian Territory. She and her father had visited the Indian Territory last summer, to see how the tribe had fared there. It was a sickening sight. The first thing she saw was the great number of new-made graves; beyond were a few miserable huts without comforts, the furniture of the Indians having been taken from them when they were moved. The agent lived in a fine house, and had all the comforts of home. The people were discouraged and ready to break away, but were persuaded to remain by her father until the suit should be brought against the Government for their old homes. She said the Indians were thinking men and women, and they were human and had souls to save as well as other people. What they asked of the Government which had driven them from their homes was to let them become civilized and have a voice in things which concerned them. As she left the platform she was loudly applauded.

Local Ministers' Conference.

The Friday's session was pleasant and profitable. L. Branson preached at 11 A. M., and J. F. Brett at night. The sermon at night was earnest and effective; the large assemblage of people lingered, listened and rejoiced as the preacher dwelt on the beauties of the Cross.

Services were held at 8 o'clock Saturday morning by Rev. E. A. Wright, of Goldsboro.

After a session of the conference the 11 o'clock services were held by A. J. Finlayson. D. P. Meacham preached at night. The sermons of the day have been sound and earnest.

Solomon Pool and J. F. Brett were elected "Agents of Missions and Evangelization." The following were elected officers for the ensuing year, viz:

J. W. Heptinstall. President.
J. F. Brett, 1st Vice-President.
Solomon Pool, 2d Vice-President.
E. A. Wright, 3d Vice-President.
L. Branson, Financial Secretary.

The next conference will be held at Rutherford College, commencing on Wednesday before the last Sabbath in July, 1880.

The conference will hereafter be composed of two delegates from each Presiding Elder's district. The organization of the conference will be thus simplified. All praise to Clayton for her generous hospitality.

The Roll of Honor.

Killed.

In Gaffney, Spartanburg county, S. C., at 11 o'clock, Sunday, Mrs. Mary Ann E. Lumsden, aged 84 years. She was the mother of our esteemed townsman, J. C. S. Lumsden, Esq. The remains will arrive to-day on the 12:25 train. Funeral services will be held at the First Presbyterian church immediately after the arrival of the train, notice of which will be given by the tolling of the bell.

A Wise Deacon.

"Deacon Wilder, I want you to tell me how you kept yourself and family well the past season, when all the rest of us have been sick so much, and have had the doctors visiting us so often."

"Bro. Taylor, the answer is very easy. I used Hop Bitters in time; kept my family well and saved the doctor bills. Three dollars' worth of it kept us well and able to work all the time. I'll warrant it has cost you and the neighbors one to two hundred dollars apiece to keep sick the same time."

"Deacon, I'll use your medicine hereafter."

"Don't Know Half Their Value."

"They cured me of Ague, Biliousness and Kidney Complaint, as recommended. I had a half bottle left which I used for my two little girls, who the doctors and neighbors said could not be cured. I would have lost both of them onenight if I had not given them Hop Bitters. They did them so much good I continued their use until they were cured. That is why I say you do not know half the value of Hop Bitters, and do not recommend them high enough."—B., Rochester, N. Y. See other column.

FRANKLIN.

LOUISBURG, Oct. 23.—The recent rains have proved a great blessing to water gins and mills most of them throughout the county have been standing still for some time, for the want of sufficient water to run them. This I suppose is one reason why the market here has been so scantily supplied. The buyers here are paying the highest market price. Everyone speaks of the superior quality of the cotton in this section this season. The growers certainly cannot complain of the season they have had for saving it. The corn crop will come in some better than was at first expected. The quality of the fodder saved is superior.

The commercial traders are beginning to come in and the managers of the several hack lines are happy, also the hotel keepers.

Trade continues to improve.

Another marriage on yesterday morning, Mr. Reid Clifton and Miss Helen Singleton. The couple left for their home near Rolesville. I hear of several more weddings to come off soon.

The criminal docket for next week is of little importance. The civil docket is quite large and some are important cases.

FORSYTHE.

WINSTON, Oct. 24.—We have had several days of cold, rainy weather. It is now fair and blowing sharply, foreboding colder weather.

Trade is a little dull this week, comparatively speaking.

Building operations have been somewhat retarded by the bad weather. When all the buildings now in course of erection, and those soon to be begun are completed, our city will be greatly improved in appearance, as well as in value of real estate.

Mr. R. D. Johnson, our genial and energetic merchant tailor, purchaser of the much desired vacant lot of the Norwood property, has let a contract to erect a fine store building in which to conduct his growing business on a larger scale.

We expect that Mr. J. C. Buxton, who purchased so many of the other vacant lots, will erect on them fine buildings, worthy the man and locations. Mr. Buxton has the means and the business capacity to do this rightly, and we hope he will do so.

The St. Paul's Episcopo Church is receiving the finishing touches of the painter, and will be quite an ornament to the town and an honor to the members who erected it. It is very stylish, tasty and handsome, Rev. Mr. Bynum, the young and talented pastor, has located here and will doubtless soon gather up a large congregation. With a delegation of the leading citizens of both our towns has gone to meet the president of the Midland Railroad, we are informed, to confer with him as to the construction of a railroad from Danville to Statesville via Winston and Salem, which will, we are told, be on an air line and give us an outlet both North and South. We think every man in our section will subscribe his "bottom dollar" for this road. It is just what we need, what we ought to have, what we want and what we must have.

Rev. Mr. Wills is conducting a protracted meeting in the Methodist Church with increasing zeal and success.

The work on our new town hall is progressing rapidly and Maj. Brown & Co., propose making it all that could be desired. The Major has the means, the vim and the good sense to put it through successfully.

FRANKLIN.

FRANKLINTON, Oct. 25.—Day before yesterday Colonel C. M. Rogers seized Ben Johnson's horse, buggy and tobacco. Johnson took to the woods. Cause—violation of the internal revenue law. Johnson is a Granville man and a Portuguese.

Officer F. C. Blackley yesterday carried Green Yarboro, colored, a hog thief, to the Franklin boarding house.

IREDELL.

COOL SPRING, Oct. 21.—There was a heavy rain on the 19th inst. The South Yadkin rose high and injured a good deal of corn in the bottoms.

Trade has increased a good deal. Wheat is in demand at $1.25.

The Federal court is in session at Statesville this week. Nothing of importance has been done yet. D.

Rev. Dr. Mangum, Prof. Univ. of N. C. I concur with Bishop Doggett in his estimate of the Vest Pocket Cure.

Rev. Drs. Jeter, Broaddus, Dickinson, (Bap.) It is indorsed by the direct personal testimony of men of national fame and strictness of speech. It is not too much to say that no medicine ever had such support in its favor as a specific. The word of any one of the eminent divines who underwrite this antidote to dyspepsia has deserved weight. Their united witness joined with the experimental use and approval of the preparation by well-known physicians, removes all doubt. It is beyond question, a wonderful therapeutical agent.—Editors Religious Herald, Va.

Chaplain Randolph Macon College, Va. Many cases of Dyspepsia within my knowledge have been cured by it. Cramps, Colics Headaches and all sorts of pains from indigestion yield promptly to it. The cures of this sort are innumerable.

Rev. R. L. Dabney, LL. D., Col. Va.

It is highly esteemed here by the regular Medical Faculty and the people It is excellent for indigestion and flatulent colic, sedative, soporific, tonic, slightly aperient, without nausea.

Rev. B F. Woodward P. E., Na. Conf. About twelve years I suffered from Dyspepsia. Falling in with this remedy, I gave it a fair trial. After its use I could eat anything with impunity. I am sure I am indebted to this medicine for what of health and physical comfort I have had for the last sixteen years. I have known many since to be relieved by its use.

Rev. Robert W. Watts, A. M., Va. I have used the mixture in my family for years, and have taken it for a Dyspepsia Colic, which threatened my life, and was cured, eating any diet without hurt. I have recommended it to other sufferers with happiest results. It is the best tonic and corrective I ever knew. For prostration from Dyspepsia or Liver Disease it is invaluable.

J. D. Eggleston, M. D., Va. It is a highly valuable remedy, and is more extensively used than any single article in the whole list of medicines, so far as I observed in my practice, for all the complaints in families from indigestion. I use it and recommend it.

Editor Richmond Christian Advocate. This remedy is of tried virtue. I have seen Dyspepsia cured completely by it. It seems to be an antidote to our "National Disease." The ingredients are not kept by he apothecaries, and have been difficult to get.

Price 25 cents per bottle. Sold by all druggists. In Raleigh, by

GOSSIP FOR THE LADIES.

Two Lovers.

I have found her!
At last after long wanderings, dull delays,
I have found her;
And all my life is turned to joy and praise.
I have found her!

A myriad-myriad times
In man's long history this thing has been;
All ages, climes,
This daily, hourly miracle have seen
A myriad-myriad times;

Yet is it new to-day.
I have found her and a new spring glads my eyes,
World, fair and gay
As when Eve woke in dewy Paradise,
Fade not away.

HER SONG.

My lover! oh, fair word for maid to hear!
My lover who was yesterday my friend!
Oh, strange we did not know before how near
Our stream of life smoothed to its fated end!
Shine, star of eve, as Love's self, bright and clear;
Shine little star and bring my lover here!

He comes! I hear the echo of his feet.
He comes, I fear to stay, I cannot go.
Oh, Love, that thou art shame-fast, bitter sweet,
Mingled with pain, and conversant with woe!
Shine, star of eve, more bright as night draws near;
Shine, little star, and bring my lover here!

Young girls wear their hair in waves all over the head, with a knot of loosely-coiled hair in the back.

A Miss Whitten, now at Damariscotta, Me., has probably the longest hair of any woman in the world. It is eight feet long, and when in a French twist it passes six times around her head. The growth is perfectly natural.

In the last few days a young lady and gentleman in this county, both in good circumstances, were married at 9:30 o'clock A. M., went straight to their new residence, to which the groom had already ordered new furniture and an outfit for housekeeping, and at 12 o'clock they had dinner, which the bride had attended to. In the afternoon the bridesmaids had a good deal of fun putting down the carpets for the happy pair.—Staunton (Va.) Vindicator.

A TRAGEDY.

'Tis Night. Two lovers lean
Upon the gate.
A nearing form is seen—
It is their fate.

A piercing scream from her
The welkin rent.
It was, as you infer,
Her pa-ri-ent.

The lover sought to scoot—
Alas! too late.
He's hoisted with a boot
Beyond the gate.

Sly Doctors.

It is a fact that many of the "regular" doctors who will not recommend Warner's Safe Kidney and Liver Cure for the diseases which it so effecually removes, yet use it "on the sly" in their practice. They must soon adopt it openly as the standard remedy.

Cuticura

THE GREAT SKIN CURE,

The most Healing, Soothing and Refreshing External Application in the World

It rapidly heals Ulcers, Old Sores, and Discharging Wounds; Itching Piles and other Itching affections that have been the torture of a lifetime, thus affording unspeakable gratification to thousands; Burns, Scalds, Wounds and Fester; all Itching and Scaly Eruptions of the Skin, and all Affections of the scalp, including Loss of Hair. Nothing like it has ever been known to the most intelligent physicians. It has swept a host of poisonous remedies out of existence. It is revolutionary in its composition and mode of treatment and succeeds in curing every external affection. At every stage it is ably assisted by CUTICURA SOAP, which is a part of itself medicinally and at the same time the most delightfully fragrant and refreshing Toilet, Bath, and Nursery Soap in existence.

CUTICURA RESOLVENT, a powerful purifying agent and liver stimulant, should be taken to neutralize and resolve away blood poisons, caused by the virus of scrofula, cancer, canker, malarial or contagious diseases, which maintain and foster diseases of the skin and scalp.

SALT RHEUM.

Life a burden from the sufferings caused by this terrible disease.

MESSRS. WEEKS & POTTER—Gentlemen: Please accept my most grateful thanks for the great, very great, comfort I have received from the use of your CUTICURA.

For the past eight or nine years I have been troubled with that dreadful disease, Salt Rheum,

For months I would be helpless,—my very life a burden to me.

I have used everything in the shape of medicine, both external and internal, but with no effect.

My hands were in a terrible condition, the backs of them being all raw, and I thought I would try CUTICURA.

I tried it, and to it was as if a miracle had been performed, for I will take my oath that in three applications my hands were as smooth as a new-born babe's.

I presume there are hundreds, if not thousands, who know of my case, among whom there may be some one similarly afflicted, and if so I would earnestly advise him to give CUTICURA a trial.

Yours, very thankfully,
A. D. BAKER, Ticket Agent C. S. R. R.

Tetter or Salt Rheum

On the hands cured. A greatful letter.

MESSRS. WEEKS & POTTER—Gentlemen:—Having been troubled for many years with the Tetter or Salt Rheum, I spent many a hard-earned dollar. I was given a trial of your UTICURA, and, thank God, my hands are well. I never had anything do me good like that.

You may put this in the paper and welcome, and may it do some other poor sufferer the same good it has done me! I am well known here, having lived here almost fifteen years and kept boarders for a living, and sometimes my heart was sore, thinking I would have to give up altogether with my sore hands, and having a small family to take care of; but oh! thank God, my hands are well, so I again return thanks.

Yours respectfully,
ELIZABETH BUKLEY.

LOCAL BRIEFS.

—Dreary.

—Go settle your taxes.

—Getting dusty again.

—Cotton handlers busy.

—Revenue receipts, $575.16.

—Judge Brooks is at the Yarboro.

—A slight runaway yesterday, no damage.

—Don't fail to attend the pound party to-night.

—The churches were all well attended Sunday.

—What has become of all the theatrical companies?

—Thirty-six hundred and three bales last week.

—Several of our attorneys left for Franklin court yesterday.

—Large sales of tobacco yesterday at the wareho—government building.

—Four more marriage licenses issued yesterday, and still they come. Next!

—Go to the court house to-night and join Professor Williamson's writing class.

—Mr. Charles Manly is out on the street once more; he having recovered from his late severe indisposition.

—Justice Barbee couldn't muster up a single offender yesterday and consequently the court is taking a rest.

—The Governor has ordered a special term of court for Davidson county, to begin the first Monday in January next.

—Get your supper to-night at Hutchings' old stand on Fayetteville street, and thus patronize the ladies and their pound party.

—A lot of "moonshine" tobacco, seized in Richmond county and elsewhere, was sold yesterday by the revenue authorities.

—Drummers' licenses were yesterday issued to Hamburger Bros., of Norfolk, and the Columbus Buggy Co., of Columbus, Ohio.

—All 301 boys who have velocipedes go to Lincke's to-night and take them with you. Mr. Lincke will give you a good time.

—Sunday was one of those disagreeable days—too warm in the sun and too cold in the shade to be comfortable without a fire.

—Rev. F. L. Reid delivered an interesting, able and eloquent sermon, to a large congregation at the First Presbyterian church on Sunday morning. Subject: "The character and destiny of the Church of God on earth.

—Lincke's gymnasium opens to-night. By all means go, if you want to have a good time, all ye young people. Gymnastics, shooting gallery, etc., etc., third floor Adams' building, corner Wilmington and Martin streets. Admission free to-night.

—The taking of names, numbers, etc., for Emerson's Directory will be concluded to-day. If there are any who have changed their location since having their names or business taken, they can have the change made by calling at the National and leaving the same.

—The Mayor yesterday disposed of two drunk and downs by consigning them to the secret shades of the station house for forty-eight hours each, where they will have ample opportunity and certainly time enough to sleep off their boozy spell.

—"Cup" has succeeded "short" in the drinking dens of grog-alley. It is understood that a saloon on Wilmington street now sets up one of these "cups," holding about a half pint, to two or more thirsty darkeys for ten cents; they then divide out into drinks in glasses and do their imbibing. Phew!

—Jane Palmer, a colored waiter, tried to take possession of the dining-room of the Central Hotel, and conducted herself in such a disorderly manner generally that she was up before his Honor the Mayor yesterday, who fined her $5 and costs for this little piece of by-play during meal hours. Jane didn't have the required wherewith, and now has full possession of the most capacious cell in the county jail.

—Justice Haywood has a novel and speedy process for "jining together" the matrimonially inclined. He cemented two "cullud pussons" yesterday in the Register of Deeds' office thuswise: "Do you know this woman?" Reply in the affirmative. "Do you know this man?" Another "yes." "Do you want 'er get married?" Yes. "Then I pronounce you man and wife. Salute the bride!" Then the pair marched out as happy as two big sunflowers.

—The following is the list of marriages for the last few days; Thurston Ray and Lucy Jackson; Turner Fowler and Emeline O'Neill; James Kelly and Rebecca Weathers; James Medlin and Roxana Chavers; W. C. Lassiter and Emma Fort; Will. G. Burkhead and Dixie Gayle; Jordan Hughes and Priscilla Smith; Badger Jones and Maria Massenburg; Adam Stanly and Lucy Lanier; John Moon and E. E. Bender; Daniel Morris and Lucy Thomas.

—Be sure to attend the Pound Party to be given by the ladies of the Second Presbyterian Church to-night, at Hutchings' old stand on Fayetteville street. A donation of one pound of anything, or ten cents in money, will be required as an admittance fee. The friends and well-wishers of this church are especially invited to attend, and a good time is promised all. Gentlemen will find it convenient to drop in and get their suppers to-night instead of walking a long distance to their residences or boarding-houses. Do this; you will get your money's worth and at the same time aid a worthy cause.

—The New York Masonic Newspaper of the 25th inst. contains a cut of our esteemed citizen, General William R. Cox, as Grand Master of the Masonic Order in North Carolina. A sketch of his life is also given, occupying three columns of the paper. Two years ago Grand Master Cox was Master of Wm. G. Hill Lodge of this city. The article alluded to is full of deserved compliments for this soldier—statesman—mason, and winds up with this quotation:

"Give us in this life but such another model man,
And by this token the noblest greatness—span."

Rev. Dr. Mangum, Prof. Univ. of N. C. I concur with Bishop Doggett in his estimate of the Vest Pocket Cure.

Rev. Drs. Jeter, Bronddus, Dickinson, Chap. It is indorsed by the direct personal testimony of men of national fame and strictness of speech. It is not too much to say that no medicine ever had such support in its favor as a specific. The word of any one of the eminent divines who underwrite this antidote to dyspepsia has deserved weight. Their united witness joined with the experimental use and approval of the preparation by well-known physicians, removes all doubt. It is beyond question, a wonderful therapeutical agent.—Editors Religious Herald, Va.

Chaplain Randolph Macon College, Va. Many cases of Dyspepsia within my knowledge have been cured by it. Cramps, Colics Headaches and all sorts of pains from indigestion yield promptly to it. The cures of this sort are innumerable.

Rev. R. L. Dabney, LL. D., Col. Va. It is highly esteemed here by the regular Medical Faculty and the people. It is excellent for indigestion and flatulent colic, sedative, soporific, tonic, slightly aperient, without nausea.

Rev. B. F. Woodward P. E., Va. Cont. About twelve years I suffered from Dyspepsia. Falling in with this remedy, I gave it a fair trial. After its use I could eat anything with impunity. I am sure I am indebted to this medicine for what of health and physical comfort I have had for the last sixteen years. I have known many since to be relieved by its use.

Rev. Robert W. Watts, A. M., Va. I have used the mixture in my family for years, and have taken it for a Dyspepsia Colic, which threatened my life, and was cured, eating any diet without hurt. I have recommended it to other sufferers with happiest results. It is the best tonic and corrective I ever knew. For prostration from Dyspepsia or Liver Disease it is invaluable.

J. D. Eggleston, M. D., Va. It is a highly valuable remedy, and is more extensively used than any single article in the whole list of medicines, so far as I observed in my practice, for all the complaints in families from indigestion. I use it and recommend it.

Editor Richmond Christian Advocate. This remedy is of tried virtue. I have seen Dyspepsia cured completely by it. It seems to be an antidote to our "National Disease." The ingredients are not kept by the apothecaries, and have been difficult to get.

Price 25 cents per bottle. Sold by all druggists. In Raleigh, by
